

> IMPRESSIVE

Dar tennis prodigy steals show at Mombasa tourney

Dar es Salaam. Tanzania's fast-rising table tennis player Sara Alidina had a reason to smile yesterday after she won the Mombasa Country championship title. The 13-year-old player beat a field of talented players to grab the top honour and a ticket for the Kenya Regional Racquet Games to be held in Malindi, Mombasa this weekend.

The Kenya-based player played for her school, Aga Khan Academy Mombasa, in championship, which saw female players put in two groups of six players each. In one of her matches, she held her nerves to down Angela Muthani from St. Charles in an exciting game. (Majuto Omary)

THE CITIZEN

Wednesday
7 June 2017

sport