Dear Parents,

We thought it would be a good opportunity to share with you photos from the events of the past two weeks in this final newsletter of the term. There have been many and have included; our Junior School Arts Performance, the Safaricom concert, the Zawadi Bazaar, class open-houses as well as today's SRC 'Career Day'.

It is an absolute pleasure having your children with us at school this past term, and wonderful to see them engaged in their learning and participating enthusiastically in events which make AKA, M Junior School special. They say a picture paints a thousand words. Please enjoy flicking through the many beautiful images of our students in action.

Junior School Performance – Friday 2nd December

Please see the attached document of photos of the Arts performance.

Zawadi Bazaar – Saturday 3rd October (message from Kristine Leabres)

On Saturday 3rd December, the Junior School SRC participated in the annual Zawadi Bazaar. The members organised different games and activities and raised Kshs. 13,950! They will use this money for future activities and projects that will benefit the Junior School students. They are planning a movie night, a chess club, a sports floodlight evening and a talent show. Well done to the SRC team for an organising a fun-filled and happy event!!

Staff Departure

Finally, we bid farewell to Simon Ndaire, our Junior School Music teacher who joined AKA, M in August. Simon has been away from his family who live in Nakuru, and indeed will be returning to work and be closer to them. We have very much appreciated the time Simon spent with us, for his collegiality and enthusiasm, and wish him well and all the best. The students had a chance to say their good-byes to him today.

Dates for the Dairy

Friday 9th December 2016	School closes for Term 1 – 2.40pm
Thursday 5th January 2017	School starts back for all students
Monday 16th January 2017	Enrichment Programme begins
